Financial Aid

Applying for Financial Aid
Website: http://www.usc.edu/admission/fa/graduates/admitted/students.html

Financial aid for USC graduate students includes the Federal Stafford Loan, Graduate PLUS loan, and work study.

Managing the Student Contribution

- Determine How Much You Can Pay Out of Savings
  If you would like to settle the student contribution using your savings, you can pay the Cashier’s Office directly. For information about payment options, visit the Cashier’s Office website: www.usc.edu/sfs.

- Determine How Much You Can Pay During the Academic Year
  The USC Payment Plan enables settlement of a student account, one semester at a time, through a line of credit established with the Student Financial Services Office. You may use your USC Payment Plan account to pay for tuition, fees, university housing, meal plans, and other university charges in monthly installments. For more information, visit the Student Financial Services website at www.usc.edu/sfs.

- Determine How Much You Want to Finance Over Time
  Some students choose to take out loans to cover part or all of the student contribution. If you choose to do this, the Financial Aid Office recommends that you borrow for the entire academic year.

Other Financing Graduate Study Options

Rossier School of Education Merit Scholarships
Each year, the Rossier School of Education awards scholarships to both new and continuing students. These funds are provided through the generosity of donors who recognize the importance of graduate study. All applicants are eligible for Rossier scholarship consideration upon selecting “Yes” in response to the scholarship question located in the Supplemental Forms section of the Rossier School online admission application.

Additional Scholarship Resources
A number of additional scholarship opportunities are listed on the Rossier Financing Graduate Study webpage, located at http://rossier.usc.edu/admissions/financing/. We encourage you to visit the specific scholarship websites for more information on eligibility requirements and application deadlines.
