The online Master of Education in School Counseling (SC online) program will prepare you to become a school counselor in K-12 settings, particularly high-needs schools serving students with complex concerns that affect their ability to learn and succeed. Professional school counselors who are trained to address the needs of 21st-century learners, schools, families and communities are in great demand across the country. The SC online program explores these issues with a focus on the well-being of the whole child through support of their social, emotional and academic needs. You will leave the program equipped to effect lasting change for children and will be prepared to pursue your credential as a school counselor.

Both full-time and part-time options are available.

Through the SC online program, you will gain the knowledge and skills in the following areas:

College and Career Readiness
- Support students at all levels and capabilities with the skills and strategies to ensure their future success.
- Take into account the cultural, socioeconomic and emotional factors that influence success.
- Learn to support the range of pathways students take toward their well-being.

Restorative Justice
- Help students overcome challenges to their well-being, such as institutional oppression (e.g. poverty and racism), mental illness, and community and domestic violence.
- Employ strategies associated with restorative justice, including facilitating behavior management through accountability and promoting just treatment for all individuals.

Trauma Informed Practice
- Gain an understanding of how physical or emotional trauma can be a barrier to children’s success not only in school but also later in life.
- Develop skills that support teaching, learning and interacting in ways that acknowledge the stress that trauma can inflict on the lives of children and adults.

HANDS-ON FIELD EXPERIENCE
The SC online program integrates fieldwork with coursework. You will gain invaluable practical experience in K-12 schools in or near your own community, applying what you learn in the classroom to real situations affecting children, families and school administrations. You will complete a 100-hour practicum and 600 hours of in-school fieldwork (split between two terms) as part of the degree program.
