

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Doctor of Philosophy in Urban Education Policy (PhD) program will prepare you to excel as a scholar who conducts research to inform policies that will improve learning, equity and access for students across the nation and around the world. Utilizing USC Rossier's mentorship model, you will collaborate closely with a faculty advisor aligned with your research interests throughout all four years of the program. Additionally, you will benefit from the resources of a Tier 1 research university as well as a supportive student culture and school leadership that is committed to putting research into practice.

YOUR MISSION AND OUR MISSION ALIGNED

The USC Rossier School of Education prepares leaders to advance educational equity in urban settings and beyond. One of the nation's premier education schools and ranked #11 by U.S. News and World Report, USC Rossier draws on innovative thinking and collaborative research to improve learning opportunities and outcomes, address disparities, challenge inequitable systems of power and solve the most intractable problems in education.

DISTINCTIVE BENEFITS

WORLD-RENOWNED FACULTY: Receive mentorship and support from leading faculty as you collaborate in interdisciplinary endeavors with major impact.

PROFESSIONAL ASSISTANTSHIPS: Students gain knowledge and skills in their research and teaching assistantships under the guidance of their faculty advisor.

INDIVIDUALIZED PROGRAM OF STUDY: Choose courses in the second year that reflect your research interests, provide interdisciplinary perspectives and incorporate diverse methodologies.

DIVERSE STUDENT BODY: Benefit from the varied educational, cultural and professional experiences of your peers—many of whom have previous experience as classroom teachers, student affairs professionals, researchers and education leaders.

COHORT MODEL: Develop close bonds with your cohort as you take all classes together during your first year and then provide mutual support that will last throughout the program and beyond.
