

Transform education policy through meaningful research

Mabel Hernandez PhD '21 is a research assistant under the mentorship of faculty at the USC Rossier Center for Education, Identity and Social Justice. Her research is focused on academic achievement and issues related to intersectional identities such as race, religion and gender.

The Doctor of Philosophy in Urban Education Policy (PhD) program will prepare you to excel as a scholar who conducts research to inform policies that will improve learning, equity and access for students across the nation and around the world. Utilizing USC Rossier's mentorship model, you will work closely with a faculty adviser aligned with your research interests throughout all four years of the program. Additionally, you will benefit from the resources of a Tier 1 research university as well as a supportive student culture and school leadership that is committed to putting research into practice.
